ExitCertified IT Training

Training Individuals and Organizations

An IT training company for more than 20 years, ExitCertified has been named a Top 20 IT Training Company by Training Industry Inc. for the past 11 years. ExitCertified helps IT professionals and organizations develop their IT skills to grow and stand out from the competition.

Vendor-Authorized Training

Major vendors, such as AWS, Oracle, Google, Microsoft, and VMware, are just a few of the more than 25 companies that partner with us to teach their courses. Our course content stems directly from the product creators.

Open-Source Technologies

ExitCertified delivers training created by the industry's top companies like Mirantis for major open-source technologies like Docker and Kubernetes.

The Training You Need

ExitCertified works with managers and employees to discover your business goals and skill gaps so you can determine who needs to learn what by when.

Standard Courses and Customized Training

As well as offering standardized courses on most any technology, we design classes specifically for your needs, saving you time and costs, so you only spend time learning what you need to know.

Consulting

ExitCertified provides consulting services to corporations and government agencies and understands the unique needs of various industries, including health care, retail, financial services, technology, manufacturing, and more.

Cloud Expertise

We have a full range of courses revolving around the cloud, including DevOps, Cloud Analytics, Containers, VMware, and Security. We specialize in helping organizations understand the various cloud technologies and practices that save them time and simplify their workloads.

Free Support Anytime

Students can email ExitCertified anytime, even long after class ends, to ask follow-up questions. Our instructors will provide clarification.

High-Quality Instructors

Our instructors have an average of 27 years of IT experience, 17 years of teaching IT, and 15 years of consulting. To conduct any class, they must be certified in the specific technology and hold an instructor certification for that course. The average rate for satisfaction among students with instructors' expertise is 97%, and for instructor presentation: 96%.

Training Awards Won

ExitCertified has won training awards from AWS, VMware, IBM, Red Hat, Cloudera, Nutanix, Veeam, ForgeRock, Oracle, SAP, as well as other vendors.

In-Person and Live Virtual Training

We can train in one of your offices or one of ours in the U.S. and Canada and worldwide via Live Virtual instructor-led training.
